Title: Transient anterior subcapsular vacuolar change of the crystalline lens in patients after posterior chamber phakic intraocular lens implantation

Version: 1 Date: 26 September 2013

Reviewer: lekha gopal

Reviewer's report:

Interesting case series. The findings have not been reported before. Longer follow up would be preferrable. Couple of spelling and syntax errors need correction.

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
