Reviewer's report

Title: What do bereaved parents want from professionals after the sudden death of their child? A structured narrative review of the literature.

Version: 2
Date: 30 June 2014

Reviewer: Michaela Barnard

Reviewer's report:

1. Minor essential revisions
Minor issues not for publication - Correction of terms under Grey literature (Lines 92-93) Child Bereavement Charity, not Trust and Stillbirth and Neonatal Death Society, not Charity.

2. Discretionary Revisions
Under Background (lines 67-68) further clarity required to explain what a child death review is and why it could be considered intrusive for bereaved parents. The child death review has had a number of different titles previously and some professionals may not understand what this is.
