Reviewer's report

Title: Alertness and visuospatial attention in clinical depression

Version: 2 Date: 15 February 2011

Reviewer: Karen Lidzba

Reviewer's report:

The authors have appropriately met all concerns raised in my previous review. The line of argumentation has become clearer and the conclusions drawn are now better comprehensible.

Now the authors should re-read the manuscript for little typing and grammatical errors, especially in the newly added sections.

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field
