Reviewer’s report

Title: The relationship between obesity and neurocognitive function in Chinese patients with schizophrenia

Version: 2 Date: 22 February 2013

Reviewer: Hiroshi Kunugi

Reviewer's report:

I think that the authors have responded adequately for all the comments except for one minor essential comment:

The authors must describe in the abstract what was meant by the "composite z score".

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: Yes, and I have assessed the statistics in my report.

Declaration of competing interests:
