Reviewer's report

Title: Rationale and methods of the European Study on Cardiovascular Risk Prevention and Management in Daily Practice (EURIKA)

Version: 2  Date: 13 June 2010

Reviewer: Michael J Sullivan

Reviewer's report:

You have provided a concise overview of the study. The study design is simple but addresses an important aspect of the application of clinical research. The scope of performing research across countries is an appealing aspect of the study. You will learn a great deal regarding the logistics of acquiring reliable data from various countries and medical cultures. Bravo!
