Reviewer's report:

Minor issues:
Rewrite this part:
Some explanations for a lower not a higher mortality risk among the higher BMI older persons includes 'survival effect' where obese persons may have already died from some complications of obesity, leaving only those who are can tolerate

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
