Reviewer's report:

I am happy with the authors responses to my concerns. The paper reads much more logically and clearly. I have only one discretionary revision and that is to suggest that it may clarify further the links between the elements of the study if you include the following phrase inserted in capitols in paragraph 2 on page 5 'Prior to implementing the policy, AND IN THE ABSENCE OF NATIONALLY REPRESENTATIVE SURVEILLANCE DATA, the NTP wanted to collect baseline data and identify possible barriers to routine HIV testing for patients with TB.
