Reviewer's report

Title: Socio-demographic, psychosocial and home-environmental attributes associated with adults' domestic screen time

Version: 2 Date: 29 June 2011

Reviewer: Angie Page

Reviewer's report:

I am happy that the authors have addressed my suggested revisions. My only request is that for the sentence beginning on line 284 'Financial aspects may play a role: less-educated adults....' the authors rephrase to make clear the distinction between finance (income) and education as these should not be used interchangeably.
