Title: Pain as a Global Public Health Priority

Version: 2 Date: 7 September 2011

Reviewer: Joanna McParland

Reviewer's report:

I have re-reviewed the paper, entitled "Pain as a Global Public Health Priority", paying particular attention to the response made to my own comments. A clearer indication could be provided on where exactly changes were made in the text. However, I find the responses to the comments to be satisfactory. I find the entire report to represent a more coherent piece following revision.
