Reviewer's report:

I have gone through the Revised Manuscript of the Article MS: 3689607 10958455. I have reviewed it after going thru the original article, my earlier review and other reviewer's comments.

The authors have addressed the comments by the reviewers and revised the article adequately including the title.

Some of the queries raised naturally could not be answered by the authors - for example if after the Maharashtra banned Sex Education in 2007 how did the respondents say they had sex education in the previous 2-3 years when the survey was done in 2010.

Many of the Minor, Major and Discretionary Comments have been addressed and changed.

Finally I have a specific querie to the authors - why was the Logistic Regression Part of the study and the Table removed?
