Reviewer's report

Title: Awareness of breast cancer among adolescent girls in Colombo, Sri Lanka: a school based study

Version: 3 Date: 8 October 2013

Reviewer: Ali Montazeri

Reviewer's report:

In general the paper has improved greatly. However, still I feel the paper needs some minor changes. I recommend the authors consult the following reference:

In addition the authors need to suggest ways to deal with the problem highlighted in the manuscript. I am sure the authors are aware that in most low and middle income countries even teacher and health care professionals have low literacy about breast cancer screening methods. For instance I recommend the authors (if they wish) consult the following references:

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Acceptable

Statistical review: Yes, and I have assessed the statistics in my report.
