Title: Adapting the SLIM diabetes prevention intervention to a Dutch real-life setting: joint decision making by science and practice

Version: 2 Date: 6 January 2013

Reviewer: Dean Whitehead

Reviewer's report:

Many thanks for this resubmission. The authors have worked hard at addressing the main recommendations of the reviewers (particularly methodological) - and have fed back well on exactly where the changes have occurred. Overall - I have the reservation in my head - that this resubmission has changed the whole methodological process of the previous submission. However, on the other hand, the resubmission now makes much more sense and is structured far more logically
