Title: Socioeconomic factors and low birth weight in Mexico

Version: 3 Date: 11 November 2004

Reviewer: Shingai Feresu

Reviewer's report:

The paper has been edited, and revised thoroughly, and now meet publication standards

Major Compulsory Revisions (that the author must respond to before a decision on publication can be reached)

In abstract: please change the word, semester to half (this is an internet journal, and read globally, and semester may not mean the same in different parts of the world)

Introduction: page 3, where the authors talk about malnutrition, there is new literature to show that preconceptual weight is a big factor especially for those infants who are also preterm;
Perhaps the authors may include this appropriately either in the introduction or in the discussion.

Discretionary Revisions (which the author can choose to ignore)

What next?: Accept after minor essential revisions

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Quality of written English: Acceptable

Statistical review: No
