Reviewer's report

Title: Patterns of active and passive smoking, and associated factors in the southeast Anatolian project (SEAP) region, in Turkey

Version: 1 Date: 15 August 2005

Reviewer: haldun sümər

Reviewer's report:

Level of Interest: Paper is importance in its field.

Advice on publication: Accept after minor revision (spelling mistakes- dictionary).

The subject informative, scientific and well defined but need some language corrections before being published as a minor revision by professional linguist grammatically.

The method is appropriate and the subject is well defined. The sufficient details were given and the work is not replicate. Title and abstract accurately given and discussion and conclusion were well balanced and supported by the subject.

Appropriate and sufficient statistical method was used.

Competing interests:
None declared.

What next?: Accept after minor essential revisions

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Declaration of competing interests:
None declared.