Reviewer’s report

Title: The relationship between chronic type III acromioclavicular joint dislocation and cervical spine pain

Version: 2 Date: 20 August 2009

Reviewer: John Stites

Reviewer’s report:

I feel that the authors have adequately addressed my primary issues and the revised manuscript is significantly improved with regard to readability. My residual concerns are more a matter of opinion. Although I still feel that further revision would tighten and refine the manuscript, it is publishable as is.

Thank you for the opportunity of reviewing this interesting manuscript.
