Consider changing some of the language eg thyroidectomized to underwent a thyroidectomy.

Would put the explanatory sentence on BRAF mutations in the case history into the discussion

Table should have explanation for ND and I would put the time points at the top of the table. Also consider not putting actual dates but relative time points in weeks or days following the initial assessment.

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
