Reviewer's report

Title: Management of type 2 diabetes and its prescription drug cost before and during the economic crisis in Greece

Version: 1  Date: 29 December 2013

Reviewer: Nikolaos Papanas

Reviewer's report:

This is an interesting and well-conducted analysis. The subject is of interest due to the growing concern for the spreading financial crisis in Europe.

Minor essential corrections:
1. Is there any major difference in interpretation between the present results and those of the authors' earlier publication? If so, please highlight.
2. In the Discussion, the study's limitations would benefit from further analysis.
3. Please do not start sentences with numbers.

Minor discretionary corrections:
1. Some minor improvements in spelling to attain homogeneity (i.e. British spelling) are necessary.

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Acceptable

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
