Reviewer’s report

Title: Assessment of knowledge, attitude and practice and associated factors towards palliative care among nurses working in selected hospitals, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

Version: 3 Date: 27 September 2013

Reviewer: Judith Paice

Reviewer’s report:

I have reviewed the revised manuscript. The authors have made most of the recommended changes. Translation remains an issue that, if accepted, will fall to the publisher to revise, since it seems they do not have the resources to make these edits. The information is interesting. This revision can be accepted.

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
