Reviewer's report:

The authors responded to my comments to my satisfaction. This is a much stronger paper now. A few details need to be changed.

Abstract:
The 95% confidence interval did not include 0, suggesting the p value should be less than 0.05. Please check stats.

References: There are several references issues with the paper, for example 24 and 36 are the same. Please recheck carefully.

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Quality of written English: Acceptable

Statistical review: Yes, and I have assessed the statistics in my report.
