Title: Preliminary Examination of the Efficacy and Safety of a Standardized Chamomile Extract for Chronic Primary Insomnia: A Randomized Placebo-Controlled Pilot Study

Version: 2 Date: 16 August 2011

Reviewer: Ka Fai Chung

Reviewer's report:

The authors have thoroughly responded to the issues I raised in my previous review; however, I still found a lot of typo errors that should be corrected, e.g. Results section, line 5, <60.0 should be <0.60, p. 7, second last line, ISI should refer to Insomnia Severity (not Sleep) Index, etc.

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
