Title: Molecular insights into the anti-cancer properties of Traditional Tibetan medicine Yukyung Karne

Version: 1  Date: 15 May 2014

Reviewer: Sivaperumal Sivaramakrishnan

Reviewer's report:

This study was very interesting and appreciable, the authors have shown excellent data. It is appropriate article for publication in BMC Complementary and Alternative Medicine. Authors have screened the anticancer potential of Yukyung karne (YK) Tibetan formulation in view to develop alternative anticancer regime, it should be appreciable and more relevant to this journal. With careful proofreading I recommend publication of this article.
