Title: Mentoring programs for medical students - a review of the PubMed literature 2000 - 2008

Version: 2 Date: 21 December 2009

Reviewer: Are Holen

Reviewer's report:

Generally, the paper is now in a fairly good shape. A few iterations of points appearing in the discussion and before should preferably be deleted. The quality of the English and the style still call for improvements.

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
