Reviewer's report:

Minor Essential Revisions
- there isn't enough connection between this study in terms of the results and findings and the literature published in BMC journal. The authors should review their results and make the connections both in terms of the findings as well as the methods so that there is some connection to the literature in BMC journal.
- The paper is generally well-written, but I do think it a bit wordy. It could be shortened and made a bit more crisp in terms of the writing.
