Reviewer’s report

Title: Instructional multimedia: an investigation of student and instructor attitudes and student study behavior

Version: 2 Date: 14 April 2011

Reviewer: Michael Kickmeier-Rust

Reviewer’s report:

Although I’m not absolutely convinced about the extent of revisions and about the benefit readers can gain from that study – in comparison to the hundreds and thousands of existing studies of this kind, I think it may suffice. Presently I am personally rather indecisive and want to go along with the other reviewers’ opinions.
