Reviewer's report

Title: Learning while Evaluating: The Use of an Electronic Evaluation Portfolio in a Geriatric Medicine Clerkship

Version: 1 Date: 5 October 2005

Reviewer: N. G. PATIL

Reviewer's report:

General
Portfolios for students have been promoted but are not generally popular despite its reflective value. Development of Electronic portfolio is a step in right direction to make it user-friendly. Experience documented in this article will be of benefit to others who may wish to use electronic portfolio as an effective instrument for continuous assessment of students; and in turn evaluation of teaching.

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Major Compulsory Revisions (that the author must respond to before a decision on publication can be reached)

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Minor Essential Revisions (such as missing labels on figures, or the wrong use of a term, which the author can be trusted to correct)

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Discretionary Revisions (which the author can choose to ignore)

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

What next?: Accept without revision

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Quality of written English: Acceptable

Statistical review: No

Declaration of competing interests:

I declare that I have no competing interests.