Title: The perceptions of Danish physiotherapists on the ethical issues related to the physiotherapist-patient relationship during the first physiotherapy session: A phenomenological approach

Version: 2 Date: 2 August 2011

Reviewer: Konstantina Chanou

Reviewer's report:

This draft is an improved version of the first one. The reviewer is satisfied by the revision made although there still is a problem with its extent; I believe it is too long but this is something to be discussed with the editor. There are still some grammatical errors, please see the attachment below for details.

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: Yes, and I have assessed the statistics in my report.
