Reviewer's report

Title: Risk Communication Formats for Low Probability Events: A study of patient preferences

Version: 2 Date: 15 January 2008

Reviewer: Jessica Ancker

Reviewer's report:

The authors have responded very fully to the reviewers' comments, and have acknowledged limitations where appropriate. My only additional comment is that the manuscript does not seem to mention the subjects of the study granting informed consent - adding a quick sentence in the methods would take care of this omission.

What next?: Accept after minor essential revisions

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Acceptable

Statistical review: Yes, and I have assessed the statistics in my report.
