Reviewer’s report:

In response to the review points raised by the journal, the following are my comments:

1. Is the question posed by the authors well defined?
   Can be better defined after editing the manuscript

2. Are the methods appropriate and well described?
   Methods seem appropriate however, some unclear issues in the procedure may be better clarified with editing

3. Are the data sound?
   Yes to a certain extent; better checked with a statistician

4. Does the manuscript adhere to the relevant standards for reporting and data deposition?
   Needs revision

5. Are the discussion and conclusions well balanced and adequately supported by the data?
   Needs revision

6. Are limitations of the work clearly stated?
   Need to be stated

7. Do the authors clearly acknowledge any work upon which they are building, both published and unpublished?
   To a certain extent

8. Do the title and abstract accurately convey what has been found?
   Related but need revision

9. Is the writing acceptable?
   No; needs extensive revision
