Title: Attractiveness of Employment Sectors for Physical Therapists in Ontario, Canada (1999-2007): Implication for the Long Term Care Sector

Version: 1 Date: 14 February 2012

Reviewer: Allison Squires

Reviewer's report:

I think this manuscript has potential but in its present form, needs major work to address the highlighted methods issues and to make it appropriate for an international audience.

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Acceptable

Statistical review: Yes, and I have assessed the statistics in my report.
