Title: Attractiveness of Employment Sectors for Physical Therapists in Ontario, Canada (1999-2007): Implication for the Long Term Care Sector

Version: 2 Date: 8 April 2012

Reviewer: Allison Squires

Reviewer's report:

Dear Editor,

The authors have satisfactorily addressed the issues raised by the reviewers, improved the explanation of their methods choices, and the manuscript is ready for publication, with only a few minor changes needed.

1) Remove the title “background” from the introductory section of the paper. Papers that integrate background information into the first section before the methods do not begin with this title. It is confusing to the reader.

2) The global term for healthcare human resources and appropriate keyword is “human resources for health” with the abbreviation as “HRH.” The authors should adjust their content accordingly to reflect global practice and maximize the searchability of their article.

Thank you for the opportunity to re-review this submission and I look forward to seeing the manuscript in print.

Sincerely,

Allison Squires, PhD, RN
