Title: Client-Provider interactions in provider-initiated and voluntary HIV counseling and testing services in Uganda

Version: 3 Date: 30 September 2013

Reviewer: Sarah Ssali

Reviewer’s report:

There are no more major or minor corrections I see given that the authors have addressed the key concerns that were raised in the previous review. The research questions are clear, in that it is comparing provide-client relations in the two approaches (VCT and PITC). Similarly, the research focus, and evidence are clear and linked.
