Reviewer’s report:

Thank you for these revisions and the clear report on how the article was amended. The change of emphasis and title have sharpened it effectively. The methods are explained and the ethical permissions are appropriately reported. Overall, I think it reads well although I suggest some further minor changes. 1) Add year of study to abstract. 2) Replace the term 'loved ones' by relative (the other is very emotionally loaded and may not allow for the rich pattern of family relationships). 3) Another proof read would help eg page 26 America not American.

I look forward to seeing the final article
