Reviewer’s report:

Many thanks for this resubmission manuscript. I commend the authors on working diligently to address the reviewer recommendations (which I am pleased to see were mostly in congruence with each other). For me, the manuscript is much better as a result of the feedback and requires little adjustment - bar:

1. General editing and attention to house-style

I trust this assists

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Acceptable

Statistical review: Yes, and I have assessed the statistics in my report.
