Reviewer’s report

Title: Community participation to design rural primary healthcare services

Version: 2 Date: 31 January 2014

Reviewer: Jane Edwards

Reviewer’s report:

Discretionary Revisions.

The authors may want to rework two sentences. In the acknowledgement section, they may revise one sentence to read, in part: "...remote services future project are thanked".

On page 11, in the paragraph beginning, "This paper draws on...., the authors may wish to change a sentence to read, "A total of 39 informal interviews were conducted...."

I think the authors have responded very well to the suggestions of all the reviewers and I think it is a much stronger paper for those revisions. Those who work in this field will be glad to have this paper as part of the scholarship available to them.
