Title: Expectations of geriatric patients from physicians: results of a cross-sectional survey among a selected geriatric patient population in Pakistan

Version: 2 Date: 9 September 2009

Reviewer: Lubna Baig

Reviewer’s report:

1. Minor Essential Revisions
   - Most of the comments have been incorporated.
   - It needs editing as there are grammatical and typing errors.

2. Major Compulsory Revisions have been addressed and a lot of work has gone into revision, well done!

3. discretionary revisions
   - It is still wordy and needs some wordsmithing by the authors
   - Although the question has been redefined but the discussion still goes on about the major diseases and the focus on patient’s expectations and satisfaction of elderly population loses focus.

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published
