Title: Performance evaluation of inpatient service in Beijing: a horizontal comparison with risk adjustment based on Diagnosis Related Groups

Version: 4 Date: 24 February 2009

Reviewer: Qingyue Meng

Reviewer’s report:

I am satisfied with the revisions made by the authors in this new version. Only one minor revision is suggested: in References section, it would be better to spell full Family names of the Chinese authors.

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
