Title: Energy and Macronutrient Intake among School Children in Bahrain

Version: 3 Date: 19 December 2010

Reviewer: Abdulaziz Alothaimeen

Reviewer's report:

This is an interesting study in this part of the world as there is little information in nutrition. This study needs to consider the socioeconomic status as it will change their finding.

The recommendation is vague the author needs to give a recommendations of interventions programs to solve the problems find by this study
