Title: Conducting Appropriate Evaluations of Continuing Medical Education in Post-Conflict areas Is Essential to Assure Effectiveness-Qualitative Assessment in Nagorno Karabagh-A Qualitative Study

Version: 1 Date: 21 April 2014

Reviewer: Dana Walrath

Reviewer's report:

This paper includes important findings for health care series work in post conflict zones. It would benefit from the revisions suggested in the attached document and I would recommend its publication once the revisions are complete.

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
