Reviewer's report

Title: "Sharing Best Practices through Online Communities of Practice

Version: 1 Date: 8 December 2009

Reviewer: Wilma Doedens

Reviewer's report:

Major
The article describes a very interesting case study. However, it is hard to read in the first instance and would benefit from tightening up the language. It also needs in-depth English editing.

Minor
There are many acronyms in the introduction. The article would benefit from a list of acronyms.

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Not suitable for publication unless extensively edited

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
