Reviewer's report

Title: Problematic Internet Usage in US College Students

Version: 1 Date: 19 February 2011

Reviewer: Ju-Yu Y Yen

Reviewer's report:

This is a result provide important information about the prevalence of Internet addiction among college students in American.
1. Please explain what the IRR is. Further, how the IRR was implement in this study should be provided.
2. Since the data was recruited from online, how to confirm the validity of response should be explained.
3. The cut-off point had been reanalyzed in many studies to provide its cut-off point. Please provide the psychometric data for the cut-off point in this study.
4. We might suggest that the conclusion should be based on the empirical study. The last sentence is important but was not associated with this result of the study.

Quality of written English: Acceptable

Statistical review: Yes, but I do not feel adequately qualified to assess the statistics.

Declaration of competing interests:

I declare that I have no competing interests