Reviewer's report

Title: Adoption and sustainability of decision support for patients facing health decisions: An implementation case study in nursing

Version: 1  Date: 23 June 2006

Reviewer: Irving Rootman

Reviewer's report:

General: This is an excellent paper, that addresses new and well defined questions, using appropriate and reasonably well-described methods, with sound data, adhering to relevant standards for reporting, and has a well balanced discussion and conclusions supported by the data. The title and abstract accurately convey the findings and the writing is clear.

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Major Compulsory Revisions (that the author must respond to before a decision on publication can be reached) None

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Minor Essential Revisions (such as missing labels on figures, or the wrong use of a term, which the author can be trusted to correct)

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Discretionary Revisions (which the author can choose to ignore)

What next?: Accept after discretionary revisions

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Quality of written English: Acceptable

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.