Reviewer's report

Title: teratoma of lumbosacral region : a site of extreme rarity

Version: 1 Date: 3 January 2011

Reviewer: Kavita Krishna

If other, please specify:

The case report is interesting. The author should however discuss the possible differential diagnosis, of other midline tumours in this region. Besides a little link only is there to the L5 vertebrae. SO it is very much in close proximity to the sacral area. Lumbosacral tumours - teratomas have been described in literature. So a review of some more case reports should also be mentioned.