Title: Incidence and Severity of Postoperative Sore Throat: A Randomized Comparison of Glidescope with Macintosh Laryngoscope

Version: 1 Date: 23 Jul 2017

Reviewer: Fabian Dusse

Reviewer's report:

The authors have adequately addressed the issues raised by the reviewers. Formally, this paper is suitable for publication, however, I still have some trouble identifying the originality/novelty of the work. Nevertheless, the authors conducted a solid study that adds data to the existing body of evidence. To me, this qualifies the article for publication.
