Reviewer's report:

The manuscript is significantly improved and all of the previous comments are addressed. I would like to congratulate the authors for their fine work. The discussion section is much clearer now. Although the issue of preoperative and postoperative VA-ECMO support was cleared by the authors in their response I think that it still may be confusing for the readers who . Therefore, please find my suggestions in an attached file. Moreover, although I understand that there are a lot of important issues concerning this problem, I would suggest shortening the discussion section if possible.
