Version: 1 Date: 28 Apr 2017

Reviewer: Namita Jayaprakash

Reviewer’s report:

The revisions have resulted in overall strengthening of the manuscript. The authors add an interesting qualitative perspective to an important topic in pre-hospital medicine that providers face regularly.

The authors do need to address one question/comment:

The conclusion in the abstract on the title page does not match with the abstract conclusion of page 2 of the submission. This inconsistency may have been an error, however it should be addressed. The abstract conclusion on the title page is concise, to the point and summarizes the work.
