Title: Quality of reporting of systematic reviews and meta-analyses in emergency medicine based on the PRISMA statement

Version: 0 Date: 10 Jan 2019

Reviewer: Jakub Kenig

Reviewer's report:

The theme of suggested publication is very actual and the goal of the suggested publication was to assess the quality of reporting of systematic reviews and meta-analysis in emergency medicine using the PRISMA statement. After the detailed evaluation I think the presented paper is good and I recommend the publication with no correction. However, I must admit, that after reading the title I expected more detailed analysis.
