Title: Challenges and benefits of integrating diverse sampling strategies in the Observation of Cardiovascular Risk Factors (ORISCAV-LUX 2) study

Version: 0 Date: 10 Oct 2018

Reviewer: Katherine Sward

Reviewer's report:

This was a careful and well-written, interesting evaluation of a cohort dataset. This sort of careful data quality assessment is important to understand the limitations of any subsequent uses of the dataset, and particularly important given that this particular dataset is likely to lead to policy recommendations. The authors are to be commended for their careful work.

Are the methods appropriate and well described?
If not, please specify what is required in your comments to the authors.
