Improved manuscript; thank you for resubmitting. Very nice paper.

Minor points for your consideration:

1. Why not put "in 2017" into the title, purpose in abstract? Maybe instead of "current data" page 7, line26?

2. Introduction--? "practising" vs "practicing."

3. Introduction--the longstanding misalignment of residency positions and US graduating medical students is a substantial excess of residency positions. Maybe you want to use this language because of the reference; maybe you could just say what the misalignment has been?

4. Page 15, line29--maybe specify what you mean here by "our cohort?"

5. Table 1 title: why not add to title that this workforce includes family medicine residents? Maybe tables 4 and 5 also?--- when it is true/correct?
