Reviewer's report:

Dear authors,

thank you for your answer and again doing the necessary final revision. Your work has now been properly prepared for publication.

In the analyses section I'd like to see a source for the used multilevel linear regression. If it is no. 18 in the reference list it should be mentioned earlier for example p8, line 12.

p9, line 26: there is an unnecessary dot following "SPSS" p15, line 33: the paragraph "strengths and limitations" could get its own headline to better structure the discussion.

p15, line 41: the sentence beginning with "Contrary" appears twice, once in normal mode, once in correction mode.

p18, line 26: the title of the person to be thanked should have a capital letter.
