Reviewer's report:

I appreciate the multiple rounds of revisions and improvements to the manuscript. I have one remaining minor comment related to the DRC event that you cited in the first paragraph of the discussion upon my previous suggestion. Recognizing that there is still some scientific debate about the probability that this cVDPV2 relates to pre-switch tOPV use instead of inadvertent post-switch tOPV use, I would suggest you edit the sentence to say "As of June 2017, two separate cases of cVDPV2 possibly associated with inadvertent use of tOPV..."
